Only three units in the complex and lots of space around the building and a feeling of house like freedom. Downstairs the garage offers good storage, and there is a second paved alfresco area that opens out to established lawn and garden. Another important feature is the convenience of this location with just a 300m walk to the beach and even closer to local shops, restaurants and transport. Whether you are looking for a comfortable home or a sturdy beachside investment with a bright future, this property will not disappoint.
