Elegant river lifestyle

Most people dream of sitting on the back porch, looking out over a river, lazing away the days; well this home is waiting for the new owner. There is an rustic elegance which the owner has painstakingly worked hard into this property and renovated over the their time in this resort.

From the front verandah with its purpose built pergola to incorporate a vine of the owners preference, to the plantation shutters throughout the home, and the modern kitchen which looks out towards the river, there is so much to love about this property. The back yard is fully fenced and there is an access gate to the rivers edge. The master bedroom has access to the main bathroom, which has, in itself, been fully renovated. There is a study which can be converted into a third bedroom, a separate laundry and additional toilet. One carport and additional room for a caravan to be stowed on site. The resort is pet friendly and has a multitude of activities for the residents. Be as active as you like.
