11 Sherry Groom Court, Buderim

More time for you and a lifestyle to match

Whether you're looking to downsize in style or simply are busy with careers and commitments this home has something to offer. The elevated position combined with the forest reserve frontage means a surprisingly high level of privacy and still close to the heart of Buderim. There's a feeling of a much larger property here, though in reality this is one of the lowest maintenance homes you'll find anywhere.

Open living areas off the kitchen are ideal for entertaining as well as being large enough to provide flexible furnishing options. The north facing deck is one of this homes best assets catching the sun in winter, and cool breezes in summer all the while looking onto the serene bush reserve. Privacy and convenience are a rarely found together like this.
