A Country Life

Quite a few people talk about a tree change, but this property offers much more, its 5004m2 offers wonderful views and an ambience of comfortable living?

Drive in to your own utopia, nestled amongst the trees, is a home waiting for that special someone who want to relax and look out to a truly serene setting. There is something special here, with not only the views looking out over the paddocks in the valley below towards Mt Ninderry, but also the gardens that surround the property. Neighbours are at a distance and a cool breeze is ever present through the house. The views and ambience is brought into the house by way of wall to wall bifold doors and mesh screen allowing a constant air flow.

A significant garden area which is a gardeners paradise, and already consists of numerous fruit trees, flowers and room still to improve the attraction of the property. Already, there is an abundance of bird life visiting the property
