

9 Warrack St, Mount Coolum

Where the mountain meets the sea

Yaroomba translates to 'surf on the beach.' Something that residents in this area enjoy every day. What really makes this part of the world special is the way its framed by National Park on one side, and golf course on the other. This property takes it a step further, with direct laneway access to Jaqueline Park behind, making it one of the most pet and family friendly locations you could hope for.
